

IEC/OC PRESENTS: How to Properly Store/Arrange Your Hazardous Materials to Minimize Risk and Potential Spills.

NOTE DATE CHANGE: Wednesday, November 18, 2015

LOCATION: The Citrus Café, 1481 Edinger Ave, Tustin, CA

Registration: 11:30 a.m.    Lunch and Program: 12:00 p.m. to 1:15 p.m.

Topic: Businesses operating in California and more specifically, Orange County have multiple requirements if they store/handle hazardous materials. In addition to the regulatory requirements including reporting, etc., you may have to obtain a permit from your local Fire Department which may include an annual inspection. Improper storage and handling can lead to catastrophic accidents which destroy property and may cause serious injuries to your employees and your neighbors! Come and learn from an experienced first responder about how your business can manage these risks.

Speaker:

Martin Cohn, is an Environmental, Health and Safety compliance and training consultant and Captain with Santa Barbara City Fire Department. He has been on over 50 activations as a team member and has taught Incident Command System (ICS) for the past 10 years. Martin started a Safety Consulting company 30 years ago when he was a Fire Fighter/EMT- Paramedic with Los Angeles County Fire Department. Martin has his EMT license, is a Certified Safety Professional (CSP) and is a Certified Emergency Manager (CEM).
