

Martin Cohn (Marty) currently serves on a United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) - United States Forest Service (USFA) - Type II Incident Management Team (ICMT). He is a Captain with Santa Barbara City Fire Department and has been on special assignment to the Type II ICMT since 2007. He has been on over 50 activations as a team member and has taught ICS for the past 10 years. Martin started a Safety Consulting company 30 years ago when he was a Fire Fighter/EMT- Paramedic with Los Angeles County Fire Department. Martin has his EMT license, is a Certified Safety Professional (CSP) and is a Certified Emergency Manager (CEM). He is authorized to teach a variety of subjects including: Incident Command System (ICS), Emergency Operations Center (EOC), CPR/AED/First Aid, Emergency Medical Responder (EMR), Life Guarding, Basic Search and Rescue, Earthquake preparedness, Basic Fire Fighting, HAZWOPER (Hazardous Waste Operations Emergency Response), DOT (Department of Transportation), IATA (International Aviation Transportation Agency), IMDG (International Maritime Dangerous Goods), OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Administration) and Confined Space Awareness. Martin has been very involved in Officiating both high school (CIF) and college (NCAA) sports (Volleyball, Basketball and Softball) for the past 25 years. He has also spent the past 10 years volunteering for the Conejo Valley Friendship Circle. For more information Martin can be reached at CNASAFETY1 (at) Gmail (dot) com.